LOS RÍOS DEL MUNDO

JUAN USLÉ

“The book seems to be one of the most beautiful objects because it is a paradoxical one: by multiplying and multiplying the planes it multiplies the depth.” (Olivan, 2023)

A singular editorial project, a unique journey through art and expression that immerses us in the world of the painter Juan Uslé, accompanied by the poetry of Lorenzo Oliván. In this edition, the covers come to life in an unusual way, transforming into canvases where the magic of painting merges with the depth of photography and the written word.

Each book is a work of art in itself, reflecting the personal vision and sensitivity of Juan Uslé. These 200 copies are created individually, like the pieces of a puzzle, like drops of water that come together to form a river.

Qué poderosa es la vida. Un episodio vívido puede cambiar el signo de un lenguaje.

Agarrarse a una verdad igual que a un clavo ardiendo.
Y con ella, y con él, atravesar el mundo.

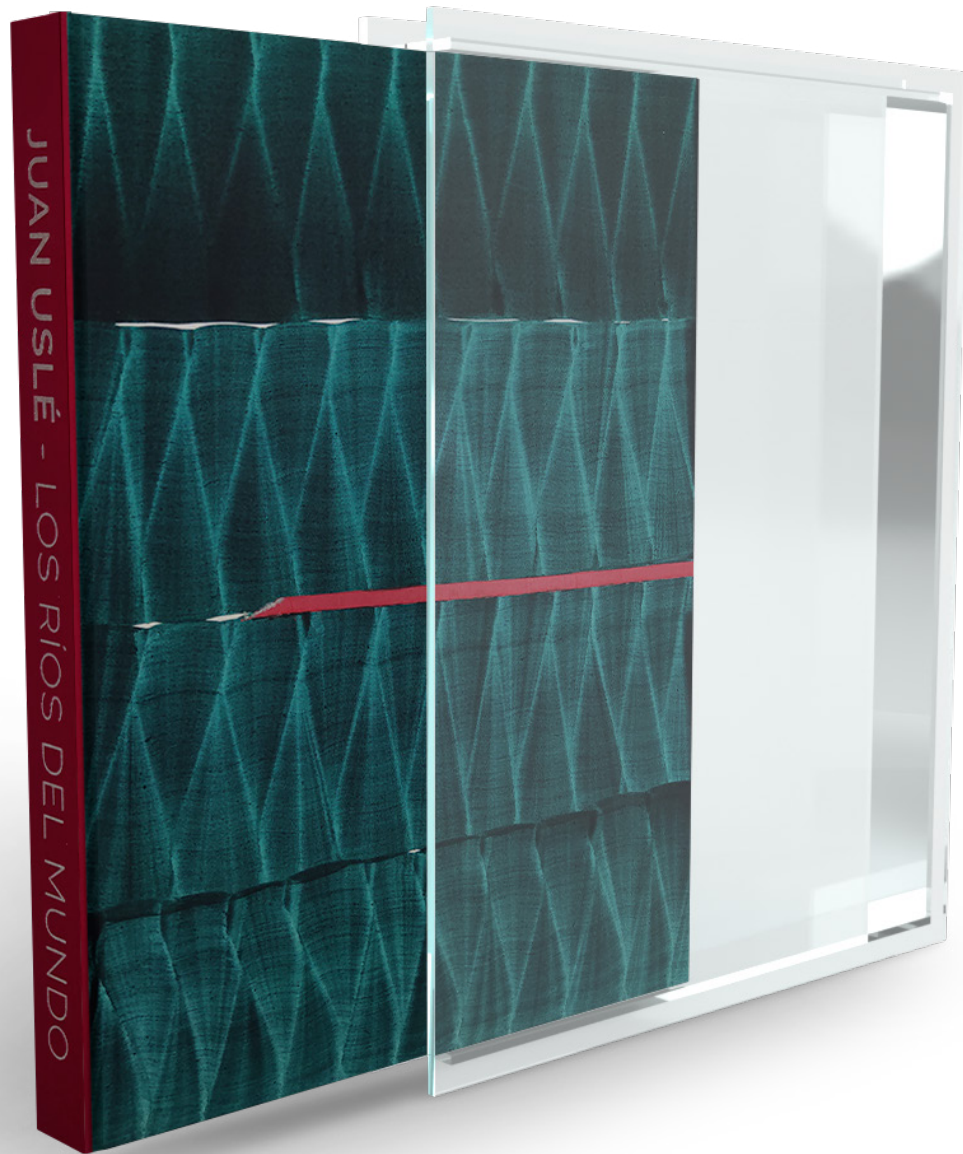

PRODUCTION

Limited edition

The Rivers of the World is an exceptional work, and it is available in a bilingual edition that offers Spanish and English, limited to a total of 200 copies numbered from 1 to 200, in addition to 25 author's proofs numbered from I to XXV. Each copy has been meticulously worked on and hand-signed by the artist in his workshop, a process that is documented in a fascinating documentary, accessible through the link provided.

PUBLICATION

Book Features

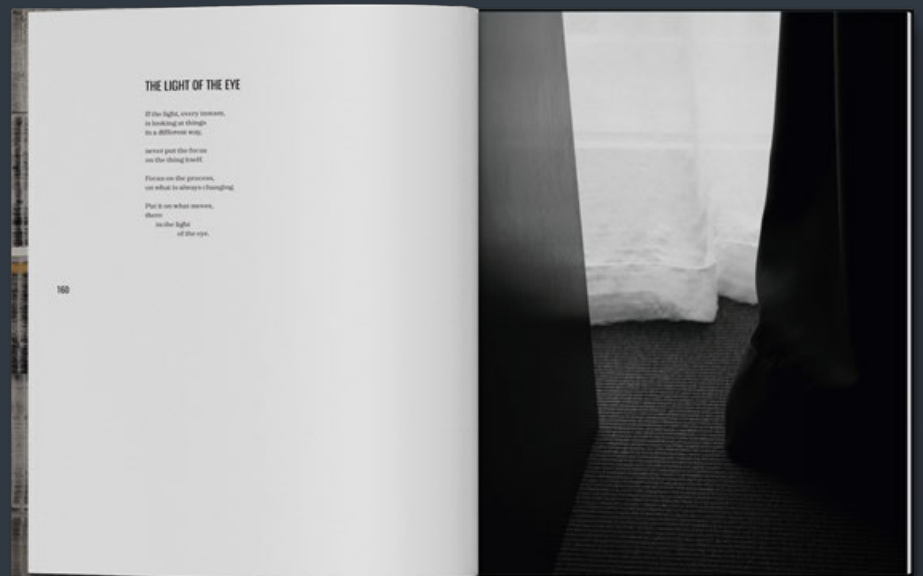

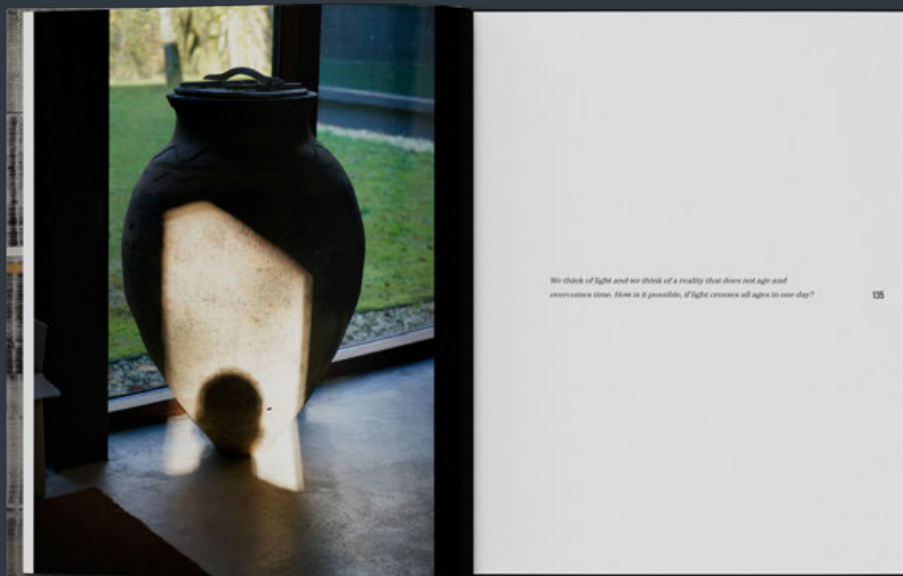

The book consists of a total of 176 pages printed on 200g Tatami White paper, and it has a hardcover cover made of 4mm thick treated wood. The artist has carefully selected each material, ensuring that they meet the ideal technical specifications to achieve the best result.

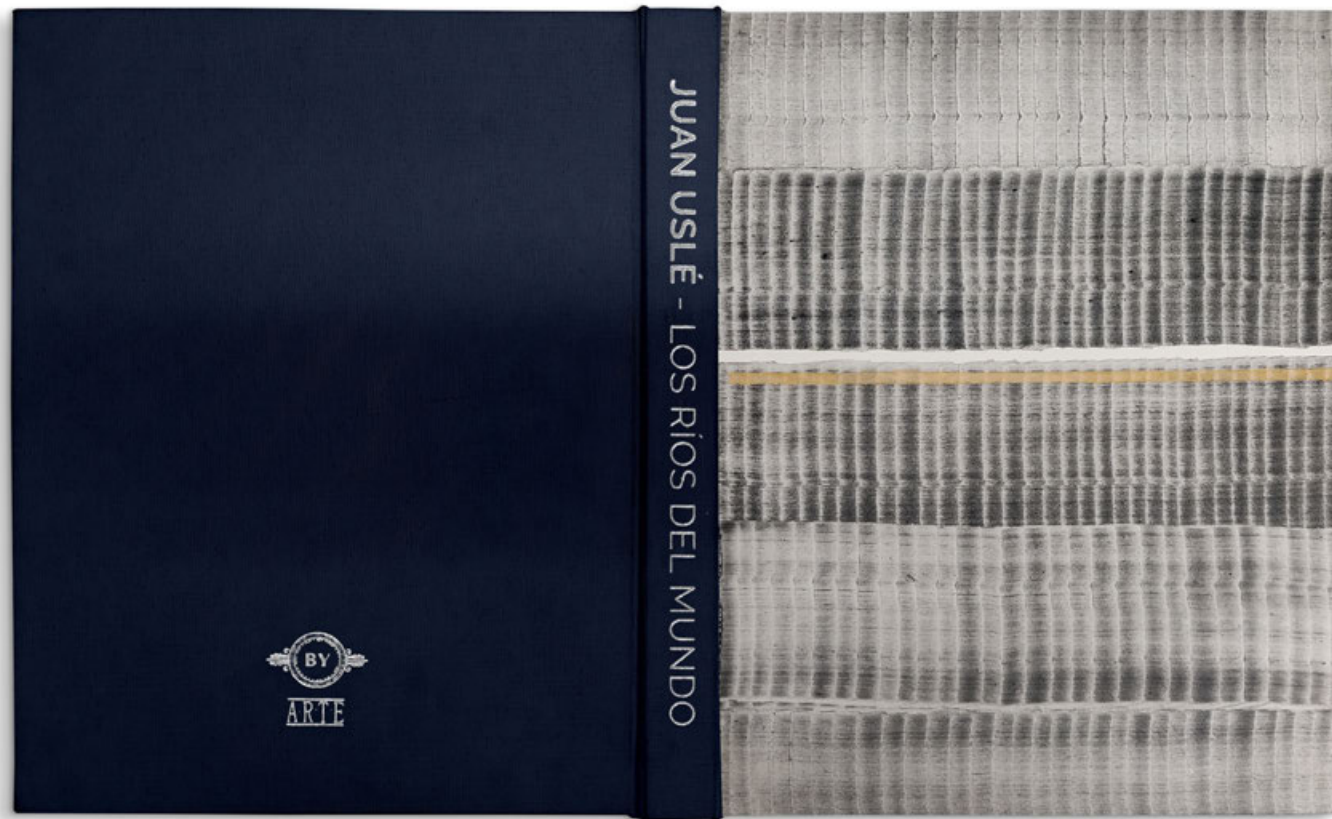

Each copy is presented in a specifically designed methacrylate display box, thus guaranteeing optimal handling and conservation. In addition, a signed sheet is included that functions as a Certificate of Authenticity, granting confidence regarding the value of each copy as an original work of the artist.
